

Remarks/Arguments:

The above Amendments and these Remarks are in reply to the Final Office Action mailed June 12, 2008.

Claims 19, 42 and 65 are objected to because of informalities. The claims are dependent on canceled claims.

Claims 19, 42 and 65 have been amended.

Claims 1, 5, 6, 15, 24, 28, 29, 38, 42, 47, 51, 52, 61 and 65 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Richards et al. (U.S. Publication No. 2002/0147850) in view of Jaworski (JAVA 1.1, Developer's Guide, Second Edition).

The independent claims include the feature that "wherein the runtime environment program sends simplified messages to the server; wherein the server converts the simplified messages into messages of a first protocol for the web service and converts messages of the first protocol from the web service into simplified messages for the mobile device; wherein the protocol of the simplified messages is less complex than the first protocol; and wherein each simplified message consists of a title and a single block of data in a markup language format". This is not shown or made obvious by the cited prior art.

The Examiner states that Kikinis shows the feature that "each simplified message consists of a title and a single block of data in a markup language format". However, Kikinis does not show that the simplified message consists of a title and a single data block. Kikinis does not say what their simplified message consists of.

For this reason, the combination of the prior art does not produce the present claimed invention.

In light of the above, it is respectfully submitted that all of the claims now pending in the subject patent application should be allowable, and a Notice of Allowance is requested. The Examiner is respectfully requested to telephone the undersigned if he can assist in any way in expediting issuance of a patent.

The Commissioner is authorized to charge any underpayment or credit any overpayment to Deposit Account No. 06-1325 for any matter in connection with this response, including any fee for extension of time, which may be required.

Respectfully submitted,

Date: August 7, 2008
